BUSINESSMEN AGREE TO AGREE

Business men and merchants of Wilmington Center, Tuesday night, in a dinner in Andover, laid plans for an uplifting of the business section of Wilmington, to which, they felt, they could all subscribe, and help.

The meeting, held in the Andover Inn, found all present in agreement that a mutually acceptable plan should be devised, so that the various structures and roads in the central area of Wilmington could present a better appearance.

Present at the meeting, and in favor of joint action, were Davenport Davis, of the Middlesex County National Bank, Atty Alan Altman, Selectman John Brooks, Raymond Fitzmaurice of the Fitzmaurice Construction Company, Carl Lamagna and Ed Toomey of the Lowell office of the New England Telephone Company, the two Bedell Brothers of the Bedell Brothers Insurance Agency, and Meyer Weinberg, of Weinberg's Department Store.

Others who had been invited found themselves unable to be present, but are expected to take part in the next meeting, to be held in about two weeks.

A preliminary plan, prepared by Mr Fitzmaurice, with the help of Perry Lord, AIA, served as a focus for discussion. The project was in part to discuss the possibilities of a new road, to connect Middlesex Avenue and Church St.

and the construction of buildings in the area between, the better to serve the public. Large areas for parking was a part of the plan.

Several of those present had already begun to plan for future buildings in their own businesses, and were interested in seeing if there could be a co-ordinated plan for all to follow.

Among the points that were discussed was the possibility of a medical office building, and also the possibility of a building which could be used as a combination restaurant and place of meeting for organizations such as Rotary, Lions, etc.

The possibility of completing Olson Road, which starts at a point near the Fire Station, and runs for about 100 feet into the area under discussion, was one of the subjects which was talked over at length, with a consensus of opinion being that it might be best if it were not to be considered as a full street, but rather as an entrance from Middlesex Avenue and from Church Street, into the interior parking lot.

There was some discussion of the possibility of having a road cross from Church Street to Middlesex Avenue, using the old dam for the Hiller Cranberry Bog (now Rotary Park) as part of the locus.

The suggestion was made by John Brooks, who said that if pro-

WILMINGTON OUT OF SCHOOLBOY TOURNAMENT

Fielding errors knocked the Wilmington High School team out of the State Schoolboy Tournament, Tuesday afternoon, in a game with Swampscott.

Dennis De Maggio pitched a very good game, but two fielding errors in the sixth inning, when Wilmington was leading 3 - 0, gave the Swampscott team three runs. Billy Conigliaro's base hit in the 7th inning drove in the winning run.

Wilmington got men on base in every inning, but was unable to get the big hit which would have won the game.

The All-Junior team won its first game in the series last Thursday, when it defeated Newburyport 8 - 5.

Second baseman Pete Emery was the Wilmington hero of the game when he hit a three run homer in the eighth inning.

Wilmington was leading 8 to 1 in the last inning, when a rally by Newburyport drove in four runs, but failed to win the game.

Southpaw Billy Ritchie pitched a six hit game, and Lynn Billings made a wonderful catch, while playing left field, running with his back to the plate. Dennis De Maggio hit a double and a triple.

DIES ON HER FATHER'S GRAVE

A Navy Nurse of World War I who visited her father's grave often, in Wildwood Cemetery, suddenly dropped dead there, Tuesday afternoon.

Mary Emma Tomkinson of 10 Edwards Street, was declared dead by the medical examiner, who said she had died of a heart attack.

A member of a prominent French family of Wilmington, she was visiting the grave of her father Mark Babine, who had died in 1930.

Mrs Tomkinson was 75 years old, and was the widow of Arthur W Tomkinson. The couple had lived for many years on Ballardvale St prior to the construction of Route 93, at which time they had to move and, after a stay in Florida, had made Tewksbury their home.

She was for many years a communicant of St Thomas church. In recent years she had been attending St. Dorothy's.

During her nursing career in the Navy she served in the Portsmouth New Hampshire Naval Hospital. She was a member of Wilmington Post 136, American Legion.

Mrs Tomkinson is survived by three sisters, Mrs Della Surratt of Stoneham, Mrs Delsey LeBlanc of Reading, and Mrs Isabelle Doucette of Tewksbury.

Funeral services are to be held Friday morning from the McMahon Funeral Home. A High Mass of Requiem will be sung in St Dorothy's Church at 9 am., and burial is to be beside her husband, in the Woodlawn Cemetery in Everett.

Mr. Rubinoff, who publishes the Tewksbury Newsweekly, has assumed responsibility for some of the bills which have been incurred by the Crusader. He is the fourth publisher for that paper, in the past six years.

Mr Skantz, the former publisher, is now a part time salesman for the paper he used to own. His assets in the paper have been taken over by Mr Rubinoff, in part payment of debts.

LWV SEEKS ADDITIONAL SIGNATURES

The League of Women Voters of Wilmington is now seeking more signatures for reducing the powers of the Governors Council.

'Let the People Decide' is the slogan for the initiative petition drive now in full swing. The drive sponsored by the Jay-Cees, Tax Payers Associations, and the League of Women Voters is in phase 3 of the campaign to reduce the statutory powers of the Governors Council.

Through the combined efforts of the three sponsoring organizations, an initiative petition was circulated last fall, and filed on December 4th with 125,524 signatures. This impressive total was twice the number required under the constitutional provision.

The petition was then placed before the Legislature in January of this year, where it was assigned House Number 3000. After the Joint Committee on State Administration held a public hearing, held by more than 1000 persons, it was given an adverse report by the committee (9-6). Late in the evening of May 4, roll call in the House of Representatives resulted in a 108-109 tie vote, which meant rejection. H 3000 then went to the Senate, where it was rejected by a roll call of 20-16.

These close votes reveal a very strong showing on the part of this bill and its supporters against the power structure which opposed it, as well as a growing tendency of legislators to agree that the time has come to cut back the Council's powers.

H-3000 remains in the hands of the people, where it began. Now it needs another 11,000 signatures to put it on the ballot next fall.

Local Jay-Cee and League members are currently circulating petitions. They are seeking signatures of supporters who have not previously signed the petition. The deadline for filing the signatures for certification with the Board of Registrars in Wilmington is June 17.

The LWV has advised that persons who would like to add their name to the thousands who have joined in the fight should call 658 - 8052 or 658 - 8143.

CONGREGATIONS TO UNITE

At a joint meeting held last Sunday in the Congregation Ahavas Achim D'Aharan auditorium, the members of the Congregation and the members of the Wilmington Hebrew Community Center voted to unite into one body.

Rabbi Dr. Sidney Leeder acted as mediator. Until a new election is held in September, the officers of the two original groups will serve as a committee to carry out the functions for the community. A meeting is to be held Sunday at 10 am, in the Congregation auditorium.

NO DIFFERENCE OF LEVEL ON DELL DRIVE, BOARD TOLD

Several weeks ago, the present owners of the sub-division which includes Dell Drive, off Burlington Avenue, told the Planning Board that when the Town of Wilmington constructed the present portion of Dell Drive, it altered the level of the street by two feet.

The street was constructed under the Betterment Plan, and was one of the 'Non-Kosher Betterment Streets' of Wilmington, of several years past.

The members of the Planning Board were told by their Chairman, Tuesday night, that the Town Engineer had investigated, and found that the alleged difference in level did not exist.

TOWN NOTES

That was Wet Stuff

Three drought is just about broken as a result of the rains we had, in the beginning of this week.

There was .01 inches at midnight Saturday, .20 Sunday, .76 on Monday, and .01 Tuesday, according to the Water Department records, but there was much more than that in many parts of town.

We would hazard that 1.25 inches or more fell in some parts of town on Tuesday, and then there was that heavy rainfall yesterday afternoon, of which we have as yet had no record.

You can turn off the lawn sprinklers for a few days, chums!

Frost Dates

A letter from a reader, on Page 3 comments on the frost we had during the night of June 5-6.

We must confess that we were caught by the frost too. We lost seven tomato plants and eleven pepper plants.

As we recall it, Wilmington had a killing frost on Bunker Hill Day in 1918 or 1919.

Les Durkee, of Salem Street, who is the type of fellow who goes out to look at his garden at sunup everyday (or used to be) thinks the year was 1918.

He says that was the year that Wilmington had a killing frost in every month of the year except August.

Booming Noise

If you like to sleep late on a Sunday morning you may possibly be disturbed this Sunday, at about 10:30 am.

It will be St. Johns Sunday, and every year on St. Johns Sunday the Lynn Village Band comes to Wilmington, to parade with the local lodge of Masons. This year the parade will be from the Masonic Hall to the Methodist Church and the Reading Commandry of the Knights Templar will also take part.

The Lynn Village Band uses drums of the style used during the Revolutionary War, much deeper than the modern drums, and they can be heard for miles.

They dress in a Colonial costume. It is really something worth watching, with their slow cadence.

You just can't avoid hearing them, so you might as well get up and watch, too.

Father Croke's Portrait

We haven't seen it, but those who have tell us that Father Croke of St Thomas was presented with a portrait of himself, done in oils,

LETTER

48 Andover Street
June 6, 1964

Dear Larz:

Imagine my surprise on Saturday morning (June 5) when I discovered my vegetable garden laid low by a sneak late frost. My corn, a foot tall, green beans, squash, melon, tomato and pepper plants looked, at noon, like someone had taken a blowtorch to them. Had the late weather on Friday warned of such a possibility, I could have protected the plants with light weight plastic crop cloths I keep for just this purpose. (The weather man said simply 'Low 40's inland'.)

This was a very selective frost also; none of my neighbors on Andover Street were affected at all.

My question to you is: What is the latest recorded killing frost in Wilmington? My records show May 22 in 1962, May 24 in 1963 and now June 5, 1964. I cannot go back further than 1962, having moved to Wilmington from Cambridge late in 1961.

Can you answer this question? If not perhaps some reader can. Thanks.

Sincerely,
H.W. Wiberg

In a Saturday evening candlelight ceremony on May 23rd, Miss Alice Virginia Blackburn and Brian Dennis Phillips were married in the Wilmington Congregational Church by the Reverend Robert Sanders.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs Alfred S Blackburn Sr., of Wilmington. The bridegroom's parents are Mr and Mrs Wallace Phillips of North Wilmington.

with matching hat. The bridesmaid was Miss Jo Ann McNeill of Boston, who wore iceblue silk organza. Both attendants carried baskets of painted daisies.

Mr Gregory Phillips was best man for his brother. The ushers were Russell Millet of Tewksbury, John Tobey Jr of Andover, and Gary and Stephen Phillips of Wilmington.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church vestry. The bride's mother wore rose beige crepe, with a corsage of cymbidium orchids and sweetheart roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of petal pink silk, and also had a corsage of orchids and roses.

on Memorial Day.

They say further that is is an excellent bit of work.

It was done by Mrs Francis (Doris) Hagerty, now a resident of Groton Connecticut, and once a resident of Hathaway Acres. Her husband might be remembered as the Selectman who used to pound the table occasionally, in Selectmen's meetings.

Doris painted the portrait from photographs sent to her by Wilmington friends, and then, being in Wilmington on Memorial Day gave it to her former Parish Priest.

We learn too, incidently, that 'young Frankie' the oldest child, has had a touch of polio, since the Hagerty family moved to Connecticut, a few years past.

Oldest Grad, 1964

The oldest person to graduate from Northeastern University this year will be Frank Tuttle, of 2 Carson Avenue.

Frank is 56, and he will be graduating with an Associate Degree in Mechanical Engineering, after six years of night school, during which he was absent just one night!

Frank has been a resident of this town since 1958, and is a Group Leader, at Avco. His hobby is Boy Scouts, and he has been every thing in that organization from Tenderfoot Scout to District Chairman. At present he is serving as an Assistant Cub Master in one of Wilmington's Cub Packs.

Two Chiefs

The old story of too many chiefs might possibly have a new twist in Wilmington, for this fair town now has, it seems two Chiefs of Police living here.

There is, of course, Paul J Lynch, the valient leader of the Wilmington Gendarmes.

The second one is Eddie Forrest, of Clyde Avenue, and of the Wilmington Housing Authority.

Eddie was to be appointed the Chief of Police of Hardwick, a small town near Barre, Mass, on Tuesday.

He went out there, to receive the appointment (or else to get the bad news) and hasn't been heard of since, so everyone assumes he got the job.

We understand it is a quiet little town, but they don't want any local boy to be the Chief De Gendarmes, and that was why they picked Eddie.

(Incidently, the way we hear it, the local bar-room in Hardwick is owned by a Selectman - the Chairman of the Board!)

JEAN LAFFIN WINS
SUTHERLAND SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Jean Laffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Laffin of Veranda Avenue, was awarded the Elizabeth L. Sutherland Scholarship last Friday.

Miss Laffin, a graduate of Wilmington High School, Class of 1963, is a student at Lawrence General Hospital School of Nursing. The Sutherland Scholarship was awarded to her as the freshman student 'showing exceptional promise as a nurse, scholar, and person.'

FORREST STREET CHURCH
FAIR SATURDAY

The first annual fair of the Forrest Street Congregational Church is to be held at the church Saturday, from 10 am to dusk.

A ham and salad supper will be served at 6 pm. Everyone is welcome.

DE CAROLIS ESTATE CASE
RE-OPENED

James De Carolis of Tewksbury, who is planning the De Carolis estates, behind the now-building Woburn Street school, found himself in the position, Tuesday night, of having to ask the Planning Board for an 'extension' of time, for the board to further study his plans.

Mr De Carolis was told a week ago that the Planning Board was ready to sign his plans as approved. But it was noted at that time that there was some difficulty about the approval of the Board of Health.

The Planning Board, Tuesday night, informed De Carolis that the Board of Health felt that no plan had ever come before them for consideration, as the law states must be done.

He was told by the Planning Board that, even if he had submitted a plan 'he had better make his peace with the Board of Health' - as that organization could tie up both Mr De Carolis and the Planning Board, and that, if such an event he might have to begin all over.

The Planning Board and the Board of Health had held a special meeting Monday night, De Carolis was told.

After some reflection Mr De Carolis agreed to a further delay while he consulted with officials of the Wilmington Board of Health.

REFUSE TO SIGN PLAN
WITH 75 FOOT LOTS

The Wilmington Planning Board Tuesday night refused, for the second time, to sign a plan for land on Church Street, in which there are two lots with a 75 foot frontage.

The land is owned by Atty Simon Cutter, Moderator of Wilmington.

Mr Cutter's home, which he bought some years past, was on a 50 foot lot. He acquired land next to it, a 100 foot lot, and recently appeared before the Board of Appeals, and successfully argued that it would be better to have two lots with a frontage of 75 feet, rather than the condition which existed.

The Planning Board, several weeks ago, told Mr. Cutter that they would not sign the plan until they had consulted with the Town Council.

Mr Cutter brought the plans in again, Tuesday night, and again the Planning Board refused.

James Miceli moved in favor of signing, and it was seconded 'for discussion purposes'.

Immediately afterwards, before there was any discussion, there was a motion for 'the question' (i.e. to stop all debate - an undebatable motion, Ed).

The motion carried, and without further conversation the Planning Board voted to refuse, with only Miceli voting in favor.

DOROTHY ROBERTS IS NEW WELCOME WAGON HOSTESS

WELCOME WAGON HOSTESSES: Mrs. Dorothy Roberts (with hat) and Mrs. Cecily Spiris. Mrs. Spiris has become assistant to Mrs. Roberts, who will devote full time to the position.

Mrs. Dorothy Roberts of 11 Catherine Avenue has become the Welcome Wagon Hostess for Wilmington. She has just returned home from a visit to New York City, where she completed a course of training, preparing her for the position of Welcome Wagon Hostess.

Mrs. Roberts becomes one of the approximately 6,000 Hostesses who are making approximately a million calls annually on families in the continental United States, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, the Provinces of Canada and now also in Great Britain.

The calls are on behalf of Welcome Wagon's approximately 80 thousand sponsors, and are made on such important family occasions as the birth of a baby, special occasions such as Golden Wedding anniversaries and other special events, and when new families arrive in a community.

Mrs. Roberts and her Assistant, Mrs. Cecily Spiris, on behalf of their sponsors here in Wilmington will take Religious and Civic Information to the families on whom they call.

With their basket of gifts, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Spiris will extend for those sponsors to the people of this community, the old fashioned hospitality for which Welcome Wagon is so well known.

'IN FAVOR OF A WAIVER'

The Wilmington Planning Board, Tuesday night, took the almost unprecedented step of voting for a Waiver, for John R Connell, for the purpose of allowing Mr. Connell to have a second hearing before the Board of Appeals in a case involves land on Parker Street. It was, Planning Board members believed, the first time they had so voted.

Mr. Connell appeared before the Board of Appeals on March 31st and asked that a lot of land owned by Walter Babine be divided into two lots, one for Mr. Babine, and one for Mr. Connell, on which he planned to build.

The Babine lot is 200 feet wide, and the depth varies from 220 feet to 278 feet. The proposal was to have each of the two lots front on Parker Street, with a 100 foot frontage. The Board of Appeals, on April 15th denied the request, saying that they had found no hardship, and that the proposal would derogate from the zoning law, in an area that was already congested.

The area is zoned for half acre lots.

Attorney Alan Altman, two weeks ago, asked for a reconsideration. The Board of Appeals cannot reconsider without unanimous approval from the Planning Board, or until two years have passed.

Tuesday night, after examining maps of the area, Planning Board member Bob Evans noted that there was only one lot on the street which had the same size as the Babine lot, and that there were many small ones in the neighborhood. Within the immediate area he noted that several lots had only 10,000 square feet.

'I am in favor of a waiver' he said. The board voted unanimously with Mr Evans.

(Ed. Note: Contrary to the memories of the Planning Board members, there was one occasion in which an appellant was granted a second chance to present his case to the Board of Appeals - that of the New England Gas Co. The Appeal Board turned down the second appeal, as they did the first).

'BOOT'S 'n SADDLE HORSE SHOW NEXT SUNDAY

Over 100 horses, representing some 20 $-H Horse Clubs, will be participating, next Sunday, in the annual Boots 'n Saddle Horse Show, at the Clarke Farm on Andover Street, in North Wilmington. The farm is located near Route 125.

Featured among the 22 events are Four Championship Classes: Fitting & Showmanship; Saddle Seat; Equestrian; Western Stock Equitation; and Pleasure Horse of Pony Champion. Other classes include Pet Pony, Road Hack, Western Pleasure, and Open Spotted Horse or Pony.

Mr and Mrs Neil Patnaude of the Red Oak Farm in North Andover are to be the judges, and they are to be assisted by Glen Mathieson of Andover as Ringmaster. Two special trophies will be presented to the high point winners as Champion and Reserve Champion Riders of the day. Points will be awarded to the ribbon winners in each class.

The show will start at 10 am.

SUB DIVISION PLANNED FOR SALEM STREET

The Planning Board, Tuesday night signed a plan for about nine house lots, on Salem Street, behind the home of Town Counsel Philip Buzzell.

The plan was of the 'No Approval Necessary' type, in that each lot faced on Salem Street, across from the Signore development. It was submitted by the Jackson Brothers of Wilmington, who told the Planning Board that they were planning to build homes to sell at about $30,000 apiece.

The land, which has been in the ownership of Mr Buzzell for about 50 years, is a part of the former Arthur Bond estate.

Included with the plan was a sketch, showing that a future road and more homes were planned in back of those to be built facing Salem Street.
